

Economics

■■■ Opportunity Knocking Newsletter

L&S Honors Fellows Program Information Session

Interested in social justice and developing leadership skills? Learn more about this program. Mon. Nov. 2, 4:30-5:30pm and Tues. Nov. 10, 4:30-5:30pm, Philip Certain Conference Room, Washburn Observatory

Alumni Lecture Series - Todd Warnock

The ESA has invited Todd Warnock back to campus to talk with students about networking and the keys to finding a career.

Thursday, November 5th at 5:30 pm. 8717 Social Science.

Freshman/Sophomore Economics Event

Did you like your introductory Econ class? Are you considering a major in Economics, but are unsure of how to declare it as your major or what you can do with it as your major?

The Economics Student Association & the ECDO will talk to freshman and sophomores interested in Economics about what it takes to complete the degree, the differences in the types of Economics majors, and the career opportunities after college. The possibilities are endless!

Tuesday, November 10th @ 4pm. Location TBD.

International Students Event –Informational Interviewing and Networking in the States

If you're hoping to land a good job now or after studies and you're unfamiliar with these tools, this workshop will be a valuable step in your job search strategy. Learn savvy ways to connect with organizations and people in businesses who may provide opportunities later on. Hear testimonials from presenters and engage in demonstration networking activities.

Wednesday, November 11, 5PM-6:30PM Room 3190, Grainger Hall

Days In The Field – M&I Bank

Meet representatives from M&I Bank and learn about the Financial Services Industry. Areas include Retail Banking, Business Banking, Wealth Management, Loan Services plus more Transportation provided – to reserve your spot – sign up at the L&S Career Services Office.

Friday Nov. 13, 8:15am-12:00pm

Employer Information Sessions

Check the BuckyNet Calendar for more events and details*

Upcoming Business Basics Seminars

All Business Basics Seminars are held at Grainger. See TIGH for room location.
No events scheduled for this week.

Career Paths in Economics

Not sure which courses will best prepare you to meet your career goals? Check out the new Academic/Career Paths in Economics (<http://www.econ.wisc.edu/undergrad/>) which outlines courses to take based on your career goals. Use this as a guideline when planning your academic schedule and researching career options.

Career Fairs & Related Events

Events are posted on the University Events Calendar and BuckyNet. Check the Business Career Center and Letters & Science Career Services calendars for updates on other events & workshops.